1. CONTACT WITH COURT PERSONNEL

- A. Case-related telephone inquiries are to be made to the Case Manager only. Inquiries should not be made to the Court's secretary or law clerks.
- B. The case load will not allow the Case Manager to respond to calls about motion and case status. Inquiries to the Case Manager should be by letter unless it is a setting in the next 14 days, a criminal case, or a bona fide emergency.
- C. Information about the filing of documents, entry of orders, or docket entries should be obtained from the Clerk's office at (956)548-2500 for civil inquiries and (956)548-2528 for criminal matters.
- D. At the Court's direction, law clerks may occasionally call counsel; however, they may only relay messages from the judge and will not discuss other matters.
- E. Correspondence.
  - 1) Do not address substantive issues in letter form because they are not docketed or included in the appellate record.
  - 2) Case-related correspondence must be addressed to:

United States District Clerk
600 East Harrison Street, Suite 101
Brownsville, Texas 78520-7114
- F. Courtesy copies of urgent documents may be sent to Chambers after originals are filed with the Clerk of the Court.

2. EMERGENCIES

- A. Applications for restraining orders or other applications for immediate relief must be made through the Clerk's office: U.S. District Clerk's Office, 600 E. Harrison, Street, Suite 101, Brownsville, Texas 78520, (956)548-2500
  - 1) Applications shall be presented to the Court by the Case Manager following counsel's affirmation that the opposing party has been contacted and that both parties can be available for a conference before the Court.
  - 2) Ex parte applications for restraining orders will not be entertained by the Court unless the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b) have been satisfied.

- B. Counsel should contact the Case Manager at (956)548-2628 for matters requiring immediate attention.
- C. Motions for extension of deadlines in the Scheduling and Docket Control Order are not emergencies.
- D. Counsel should send a copy of emergency motions directly to Chambers so that they quickly reach the Court's attention.

3. CONTINUANCES

- A. Joint motions for continuances are not binding, and they will be granted only at the Court's discretion.
- B. Counsel are reminded that, as required by The Civil Justice Reform Act of 1990, 28 U.S.C. § 473(b)(3), the Cost and Delay Reduction Plan [adopted by the Court on October 24, 1991], states that "all requests for extensions of deadlines from completion of discovery or for postponement of the trial [must] be signed by the attorney and the party making the request."
- C. Trial will not be continued because an expert or medical witness is unavailable. Counsel should anticipate such possibilities and be prepared to present testimony by written deposition, videotaped deposition, or by stipulation.

4. APPEARANCES

- A. An attorney who appears at a hearing or conference shall be familiar with the case, have authority to bind the client, and be in charge for that appearance.
- B. If out-of-town counsel desire to appear by telephone, a written request should be made to the Case Manager as far as reasonably possible in advance of the conference.
- C. Counsel will notify the Case Manager immediately of the resolution of any matter that is set for trial or hearing.

5. MOTION PRACTICE AND BRIEFS

- A. The Court follows the written motion practice described in the Local Rules.
- B. Unless otherwise indicated in the Scheduling Order entered at the Initial Pretrial Conference, dispositive motions must be filed at least ninety days and non-dispositive motions must be filed at least forty-five days before the date set for final pretrial conference (also referred to as docket call).

- C. Counsel must respond to an opposed motion within twenty days from the date the motion is filed with the Clerk's Office. If the movant makes a reply, it must be filed within twenty days thereafter. The reply should not unnecessarily repeat arguments made in the motion. It should only respond to any new arguments, authority or evidence presented by the opposing party in the response.
- D. After a motion, response, and reply are filed, the Court will not entertain any additional or supplemental filings unless they are accompanied by a motion for leave to file. The motion for leave to file must explain why the argument, evidence or legal authority contained in the additional filing was not included in earlier documents already in the record, and state a specific reason why the Court should grant the motion for leave in the interests of justice.
- E. Unless a motion hearing is set, all motions to which the non-movant has had twenty days to respond will be heard at the next status conference. If the movant makes a reply, it must be filed at the Clerk's Office at least five full business days before the status conference or motion hearing. If the reply is not presented in a timely manner, it will not be considered by the Court unless the Court grants a motion for leave to file the reply late.
- F. Any motion, response or reply filed after the time limits contained in these rules must be accompanied by a motion for leave to file that explains why the document was not timely filed. The Court will only grant a motion for leave to file a motion, response or reply late if good cause is shown. A motion, response or reply filed late, and not accompanied by a motion for leave will be stricken.
- G. Requests for oral argument are not necessary. The Case Manager will notify counsel should the Court determine that a motion hearing would be beneficial. If a motion hearing is not set, all ripe pending motions will be addressed at the next status conference unless counsel are specifically notified that the motion will be decided without oral argument. If counsel anticipate the need to offer evidence and testimony, leave to do so must be obtained from the Court in advance.
- H. All motions should incorporate supporting briefs and pertinent exhibits. Briefs must be filed together with or incorporated within a motion, response or reply.
  - 1). All briefs and memoranda of law must be concise, pertinent, and well organized. Briefs and legal memoranda shall be limited to 25 pages, unless permitted by the Court to exceed this limit.

- 2). All briefs and memoranda must contain:

Statement of the Issues to be Ruled upon by the Court: a short statement highlighting the issues before the Court with supporting authority and standard of review for each issue.

Summary of the Argument: a short summary divided under appropriate headings and succinctly setting forth separate points.

Conclusion: a short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

- 3). Any brief or memorandum with more than 10 pages of argument must also contain the following items.

Table of Contents: setting forth the page number of each section, including all headings designated in the body of the brief or memorandum.

Table of Citations: listing cases, statutes, rules, textbooks, and other authorities, alphabetically arranged.

Statement of the Nature and Stage of the Proceeding.

- I. References to evidence in support of or in opposition to a motion for summary judgment must be specific, citing page and line numbers for depositions, or page and paragraph number for any other type of exhibit.
- J. The Court believes that most discovery disputes, especially those dealing with (1) scheduling, (2) the number, length, and form of oral and written questions, (3) the responsiveness of answers to oral and written questions, and (4) the mechanics of document production, including protective orders and the proper method of raising claims of privilege, can be resolved by counsel without the Court's intervention.
- K. In order to curtail undue delay in the administration of justice, the Court will not hear discovery motions unless moving counsel has advised the Court, in the motion, that counsel have conferred in a good faith effort to resolve the matters in dispute but are unable to reach an agreement. If counsel have been unable to confer because of unavailability or unwillingness of opposing counsel to do so, the statement shall recite the facts concerning attempts to confer.
- L. Motions for extension of discovery must be filed far enough in advance of the deadline so that opposing counsel may respond prior to the deadline.

- M. If motions are decided without a hearing or are taken under advisement, the Court will make a ruling as soon as possible, and counsel will be furnished with copies of orders.
- N. Counsel are encouraged to authorize the Clerk of the Court to provide facsimile transmission of orders and motions.

6. COPIES OF AUTHORITIES AND OTHER MATERIAL CITED

- A. Please append copies of cases and the relevant portions of authorities that are cited in a brief, memorandum, or motion if the authorities are not found in the United States Code, United States Supreme Court Reporter, Federal Reporter, Federal Rules Decisions, Federal Supplement, Southwestern Reporter Second or Vernon's Revised Statutes and Codes Annotated.
- B. Copies of any affidavits, deposition testimony, or other discovery referenced should also be contained in the appendix.
- C. All appendices should contain a paginated table of contents and should be tabbed in order to locate the materials more readily.

7. INITIAL PRETRIAL AND SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

Notice of the Right to Try a Civil Case before a Magistrate Judge

With the consent of all the parties, a United States Magistrate Judge may preside in a civil case, including jury trial and final judgment.

The choice of trial before a magistrate judge is entirely yours. Tell only the clerk. Neither the judge or magistrate judge will be told until all the parties agree.

The district judge to whom your case is assigned must approve the referral to a magistrate judge.

You may get consent forms from the clerk.
